and the eccesh and rebels.

mite forty or more, . ale fat and ready to tend it. whi the fool darkey be sure. ised to give them all office them my equals also, neta think I was an angel cearin would be Heaven below. syery office we wanted sew the poor darkies a bone. sel and we stole without fearing, of he would let us alone.

speech of old Greeley as the first heavy blow, siggers, confound 'em, want office here shall we carpet-bags go? at more trouble is coming. and the land I can't show, gany a swindler before me, pick up my stealings and go. spa. August 5, 1872.

CONSTANT LOVE. After an Engagement of Eighteen Years.

From the Omaha Tribune. are seldom heard of except in They were Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, the wife for many ident of Prairie City, Iowa, and be usual courtship, the couple engaged, the young lady agreeing until such time as her lover's circumstances should justify the ests. mee of the marriage ceremonies time Mr. Holmes was on a visit people, and returned shortly to in the hope that his second the Golden state might be more fortune always played false. ing the mining fields, the young ave his time to other and surer and in two years had ac ed a neat little sum of money. all this time not a word of comame to him from his betrothed.

getting his money together Mr. s visited Iowa for the purpose of prove false to any one, and when her brothers was pronounced conmation to stay by him and Mr. Holmes told the wonderful air of California, but without avail- The falling as determined upon never leaving homestead, under whose roof his and mother had passed from earth. ter's duty was plain, and she met edges of constancy were renewed er returned to California, feeling the truth of the sentiment: "Hope He is undivided attention to business, gs, and to day is worth over a he meantime the separated lovers r at times was thought to be on the oad to health, and at others, very and agents of the Government. eath's door. But for many months ad steadily declined, and when the pringtime ushered in the green and the singing birds, he was laid er visit to Iowa, when the hopes of were realized, the faithful pair united in marriage last Sabbath appearance, the lovers have been out that their hearts are as young is ain as that "purity remaineth brigh They looked yesterday more ople who had been married for other heads of Departments. years than like a newly-wedded the husband being 43 and the pping Fruit and Other Farm Produce.

he laws protecting "trade marks" are seritorious articles, and a protection st fraud and imposition. We see warrants the package to which it is hed to contain fruit of the first quality at variety in every respect, and to produce should labor to make his hushed up or smoothed over.

making a low bow, said: "Sir, ser presents his compliments, hopes he boy a crown for his ready wit.

Col. W. B. Shelby, of Rankin-

-

E WEEKLY CLARION.

Mr. Greeley's Portland speech was the "thieving carpet-baggers:

of the Innocent.

Radical Persecutions in Pontotoc.

HOW LONG, LORD, HOW LONG!

Conscious that the civil people have no respect for them, they seek thus to get re-

Esquire H. is about sixty years of age.

honorable, and a higher sense of propriety

What a scene! Just imagine! Mr. Norton, Esq., Elijah Smyth, Rev. Joshua Pitts.

Old man Sims, Old man Sadier, and Dr.

Porter & Co., following on-just for the sake of being in good company-all disguised in regular Kuklux uniform, black night, seeking some poor innocent defense-ess on whom to pour their vials of wrath!

Good Heavens! Have we insulted you you by asking you to imagine how much

Now, my friends, allow me in conclusion, to drop a word of caution and admonition.

are relying for safety on your conscious-wanting to prove anything they may wish.

Very respectfully,

A movement is on foot in Texas to impeach the usurping Governor of that

Gen. Joe Johnston on the Presidential Question.

He Prefers a Democrat but will Vote for Greeley.

Gen. Johnston defines his position on the Synonymous for in the South.

Presidential question:

The following extract from a letter of

H. H. PORTER.

trial in a sham court of justice!

down our citizens.

the lists made out.

venge and force respect-

PONTOTOC, August 9, 1872.

VOL., XXXV - NO 38

JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, THURSDAY, AUGUST 29, 1872,

Interference of Federal Office-holders in Elections. The following letter written by Daniel Webster, Secretary of State in 1841, has been reproduced as applicable to a bad practice prevalent under the Grant Administration. It is the interference of Federal Officeholders in elections. Under the present demoralized system of administration this abuse has become a regular system from the highest functionary in the government to the lowest menial. Gen. Grant sent two of his Cabinet officers to control the elections in North Carolina, and they performed has been a persistent enemy of the peothe parts assigned them in the most despicable and disgraceful style imaginable. ted for every measure for their vindic-They addressed themselves to the lowest tive persecution, and has been the willpassions of the untutored blacks-labored to stir up strife between the races-and to rekindle the passions of the civil war tion has been based. Our cotemporaries which terminated nearly eight years ago. of the 6th District have found an espe-They held out promises of reward to cial occasion for indignant comment in of the good name of our country and the those who would range themselves on the the following atrocious utterance in a well being of her people. side of the Administration and threatened vengeance against those who would the 6th of February: not be corrupted. They suspended Ku In my own State the Republican party Klux indictments which had been pro-Klux indictments which had been pro-cured by money and perjury over the half, organized three thousand schools, and heads of voters, and expended large have ninety thousand scholars attending sums to carry out their partisan schemes. The same system of terrorism and corruption has been put into operation in all theother reconstructed States. In Mississippi, the most active instruments of the Grant party are those who are pensioned on the public treasury. Nothing better than vile practices like these could be expected of an Administration whose head looks upon the Presilay's train carried west a couple dency as a personal accommendationwho bestows office in consideration of money, houses, and other valuables - and "the defeat of Perce, the calumniator." who is the centre of a dishonest Ring hand ranking with the California | which aspires to the management of every niners." Eighteen years ago, af- department of the government and seeks to make everything connected with it subservient to selfish and partisan inter-

> The letter of Daniel Webster is a protest against this practice. It is a young men: His re- trust will recall the people to a sense of

CIRCULAR.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
March 20, 1841.

To the Hon. Thos. Ewing, Secretary of the Treasury: SIR:-The President is of opinion that it sa great abuse to bring the patronage of he General Government into conflict with the freedom of elections; and that this the sweetheart a wife. A girl abuse ought to be corrected wherever it proven so true to a lover could may have been permitted to exist and to be prevented for the future.

He therefore directs that information be He therefore directs that information be given to all officers and agents in your department of the public service, that partisan of people struggling for the maintenance and moral justice, is not to be found. sterference in popular elections, whether of State officers or officers of this Government, and for whomsoever or against whomsoever it may be exercised, or the sed all his means to in luce him to payment of any contribution or assessment on salaries or official compensation for party or election purposes, will be regarded by him as cause of removal.

It is not intended that any officer shall be restrained in the free and proper expressio and maintenance of his opinions respecting public men of public measures, or in the exercise, to the fullest degree, of the con- the specimens of cotton worm enclosed. stitutional right of suffrage. But persons Of the existence of the worms in all parts employed under the Government, and paid for their services out of the public Treasury, of the cotton region there is no doubt are not expected to take an active or office ious part in attempts to influence the minds or votes of others; such conduct being will be cut short in consequence. This deemed inconsistent with the spirit of the Constitution and the duties of public agents acting under it; and the President is re- and it is idle for planters to delude themsolved, so far as depends upon him, that while the exercise of the executive franchise pended regularly. The invalid by the people shall be free from undue inluences of official station and authority, pinion shall also be free among the officers The President wishes it further to be announced and distinctly understood, that from all collecting and disbursing officers promptitude in rendering accounts, and entire punctuality in paying balances, will be rigorously exacted. In his opinion it is time to return, in this respect, to the early practice of the Government, and to hold any degree of delinquency on the part of those entrusted with the public money just cause of removal. He deems the severe bservance of this rule to be essential to the public service, as every dollar lost to the Treasury by unfaithfulness in office, creates anged by time and care and sor- a necessity for a new charge upon the Peo-

> I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant, DANIEL WEBSTER. Similar letters have been addressed to Something like a Cunningham Case in Arkausas.

It seems that an epidemic of villainy has broken out in a new phase in Radical circles. A report comes that the people of Arkansas are in a state of excitement and proper, as these marks are often over a plot which has been discovered to egreatest value and advantage to the swindle the State by means of false facturers and sellers of really good scrip. The frauds already discovered exceed $100,000. The examination of colored citizen of Rankin county. It he South Haven Pomological Society suspected parties is being conducted with higan has established a trade mark closed doors, and no newspaper men be- to being a good citizen and a successful represents the cre lit of the society. ing admitted excites still more apprehension in the public mind. It is suggested porter of Greeley and Brown. by the newspapers that many persons of aform throughout the package as it prominence are in the conspiracy, and ars on the surface. Every man who that on this account the matter will be

A. G. Hora of the Mercury, President, and Hon. W. G. Grace, Republication of the same mother of the mother of the One Isaiah Mitchell (colored) who are well, and requests your acceptated the boy. "Return him my best week and assured the bredren that there were "not a colored man in Mississippi, and then beat or whipped him animer-"self." The Dean, thus caught in was "not a colored man in Mississippi cirully. wn trap, laughed heartily, and gave "who would vote for Greeley." Isaiah had not heard the news.

From the Southern States.

Col. W. B. Shelby is before the people as prospective candidate for Congressional things. We are truly proud of the opportant of this honest man of giving expression to their true appreciation of genuine merit. Shelby is one of the God-made men that will stand the tast of the furnace seven times heated and come out without a smell specialis garment.

Forest Register. Fourth District Elector.

An Atrocious Caluminy.

One of the grievances of this State spoken from manuscript, and therefore against the Grant Administration is, that was deliberately prepared. There was a LIBERAL REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS. it foisted into Congress with the bayonet slight mis-report of the closing paragraph a set of members who have continued to of the copy from which we printed—but occupy the seats for two terms in violation here is precisely what he did say about of the clause of the constitution which prescribes that members of the House Perce, carpet-bagger, from the Natchez District. With the other pretended members of the adventurer's class, he ple he claimed to represent. He has voted for every measure for their vindictive persecution, and has been the willing mouth-piece for every manner of misting mouth-p representation on which hostile legislaspeech delivered by him in Congress on them. But, sir, we have the united and stern opposition of every Democrat in the State. And there they do not, as in the North, oppose us only at the ballot-box; but they substitute the borote-knife and the burning brand for the ballot, against these ways and illiterate children of starter." poor and illiterate children of slavery."

The "mine own State" of which this carpet-bagger presumptiously speaks is Mississippi. Commenting upon this language, the Natchez Courier says: "And "fangs, is endeavoring to again coil itself 'in the halls of Congress. Let the warning from the sages who lived in the in this crowd, and to such I would say, be better people ever scorned to give them purer days of the Republic; and we resolute. If the doors of opportunity are office, has been thrust into power. but be sure that in the good providence of as frequently promised during the the necessity of reforming their governneglive or six years, but the lickle ment by a change of rulers ere it is too as you would prefer; but it will be a real and genuine success. There is no land like ours for its opportunities to poverty, to industrious, honest and conscientious poverty. To those of you who are struggling now as I struggled in my young life I repeat, be

The Sage to the Young Men.

After the Sage of Chappaqua had delivered his political speech at Portland -he was serenaded at the hotel, and in the course of his remarks, uttered the following words of encouragement to the very peculiar circumstances of the time, a no less to-day.

> Mr. Greeley himself is an example of what industry and integrity, joined to good natural gifts, will accomplish. Starting in life as an humble journeyman printer, with no support but his trade, he has risen to be the standard-bearer of of constitutional liberty, with every prospect of election to the highest office within their gift.

The Cotton Worm ... Letter from Hon. A. G. Brown.

We have received the following letter from Ex-Governor A. G. Brown with and there is as little doubt that the crop we have contended from the beginning, selves with a contrary hope:

August 21, 1871. § EDITORS CLARION:-I send you son specimens of the cotton worm already webbed up. This settles the question of these terrible enemies of the plant.

TERRY, HINDS Co., MISS.,

likey to deny them a fair reward for their labor. It is best however for many reasons

A. G. BROWN.

NEW COTTON .- Hon. George C. Mc Kee brought in the first bale of cotton the present season. The second bale was brought in by William Mannery, a was grown on his own land. In addition farmer, Mr. Mannery is a staunch sup-

The friends of Greeley and Brown in Meridian have organized a Club. Col. A. G. Horn of the Mercury, President,

This case is similar to the murder of a negro by a party of his own race on a charge of 'conjuring' in this vicinity (near Liberal Republican Address.

Jackson, Mississippi, August 22th, 1872. To the People of Mississippi :

I have been requested by the Executive Committee of the Liberal Republican Party Fellow-citizens, the deposed and partially of this State to publish an address to you of Representatives shall be elected every of Representatives shall be elected every two years. Among the beneficiaries of this fraud on the people, is one L. W. exiled Tammany ring has stolen about each open the point as issues of the day of the task in the character of one who has shared the good and ill fortunes of the splendor to impotency and infamy, but this fraud on the people, is one L. W. upon the task in the character of one who at work, and we may look for a relief ion of has shared the good and ill fortunes of the at least a fourth on original calculations. organization in Mississippi; and I offer the THE THIEVING CARPET-BAGGERS record of my services in the dark as well as have stolen at least three times that amount bright days of its history as an earnest of stolen it from people already impoverished and needy, and they still flaunt their prospermy good faith now.

ous villainy in the highest places of the land, I shall be pardoned for not undertaking but not doing much damage. which the two Republican candidatestime those criminals will have heard a naquestions of finance, protection, free trade, tional verdict pronounced that will cause them to "fold their tents, like the Arabs." foreign policy, and all that sink out of conand as silently steal away, and that I trust sideration in presence of the paramount will be the end of their stealing at the cost desire to secure for the State a relationship with the general government firmly and unalterably fixed upon a full and substan-The Blood Hounds on the Track the statesmanship of the times to be compelled to confess that after the lapse of more still demand our whole attention. To the exclusion of matters legitimately connec-EDITORS CLARION :- Again our town is several U. S. Marshals and Deputy Mar- still confine us to a contemplation of how shals who are busily engaged at hunting | we as Mississippians can best work and best | they failed to put in an appearance. agree with the National Government. In If they were after blacklegs, ruffians and every emotion and instinct of my nature, a outlaws, all would sanction and most heart- man of the South, immediately after the ily give their aid and support; but such is surrender of the Confederate forces-view-"yet this reptile, Perce, with venomed not the case. On the contrary, it is a ing the settlement of the issues created by subject of remark that had the grand jury the war from a Southern stand-point-my

My persistance in these views made me a | yeoman services for the cause. Republican, and as the several amendments To one accustomed to regard the law as an institution of justice to protect the weak, to the Constitution of the United States encourage civility and good order, and re- were presented to our people for ratification, strain and punish the vicious, these things I advocated and voted for their adoption are apt to appear inexplicable. But the All along the history of the party I have certain class of depraved humanity, of such In 1868 I was in favor of the election of Gen'l Grant to the Presidency.

Standing triumphantly at the head of the having already exhibited a soldierly hearing towards the conquered chieftains of the South, sounding the key-note of his cam-We were pained on yesterday to see our paign and administration, "Let us have er brains nor character nor money except esteemed old friend, Jack Horton, Esq., Peace;" and knowing that his immense what it has purloined feloniously from the marched into town under guard, and before popularity would enable him to take a larhis satanic majesty, there to be interrogated ger liberty with delicate questions between A Colored "University" man on with a score of silly, irrelevant questions, the two sections, to the satisfaction of all, and required to give bond in the sum of I advocated his election with all the zeal of $5,000 for his appearance before that awful adevotee.

He has not given peace. Knowing as he should have known, the sensitive nature of men galled by defeat, a wise statesmanship He has been a citizen of this county for would have dictated the appointment to to say he is a man than whom a better citi- federal offices in our midst, of men who, while zen, more of a gentleman, higher minded, they would unswervingly perform their duty, would not have aggravated the feel- Revels and make a little proposition. The ple, towards the government of the United rity in the community in which they were

When the State was restored to its place in the Union, and when the military comcalico pantaloons, &c., prowling about by of common sense and a knowledge of huhave dictated the selection of officers who by asking you to contemplate such an inwould not have suggested by their very supportable thing? or shall we further tax this, what are the facts? In the whole list of having done his duty to Heaven and his like a fool you would feel to be forced from legitimate and important business, and of Federal office-holders in the State of marched off with this company to a distant | Mississippi, only one office of importance is court, there to be detained from day to day to-day held by a man who ever trod the and from term to term awaiting your turn | soil of Mississippi before the war, and that to be threshed through the formalities of a man (Judge Hill, of the United States District Court,) was appointed by Andrew

You are laboring under a delusion. You no complaint against men of Northern settles another and more important one as ness of innocence. This is a mistake. These | Many of them I have tried and found them are times in which your innocence will be as patriotic and true as ever espoused an unpopular cause. Many of them have been The Greeley Revolution-its Un-We know it is difficult for an honest man forced to become active partisans by the an average, of the plants are more back- their leaders, regardless of your innocence them as corrupt adventurers. President ward than almost ever known at this season or guilt. Before tribunals thus organized Grant has been unfortunate in selecting a of the year, and it will not require a very you have nothing to expect from your in- goodly number of this class to represent experienced planter to tell what must the nocence. To be a Kuklux now, signifies his administration in Mississippl, and he effect be if the fields are eaten out in the simply for some of their leaders to have a persistently keeps them in office, remonnext thirty days as now seems more than dislike for you, and witnesses will not be strances of Republicans to the contrary notwithstanding. When we ask for bread he gives us a stone, and if we desire a fish

> When he entered upon his duties as Presganization. But the men whom President State for crimes and misdemeanors in Grant sent to correct it, by their wholesale ded the infection into an epidemic. After provoking certain sections of the State by llegal arrests and most insulting espionage the disloyalty of Mississippians. Witness the hundreds of arrests and the hundreds of no hesitation in giving him the vote of New and without proof. It seems that these offi-"Assure all our old comrades that you character by the number landed in jail. Sive him fifty electoral votes more than are

Synonymous for in the South.

From Forney's Philadelphia Press.

We deplore but do not apolgize for this condition of affairs, the end of which we can not see. It has made the name of Republicans synonymous for plunder in South Carolina and it ought to be a warming for us of Pennsylvania not to elect to offices of honor and trust incompetent or dishonest men. The whole of South Carolina's troubles since the war date from the election and re-election of men simply because they were Republicans and not because they were Republicans and to elect to differ the direction of the President has failed to do we are depth for the United States.

Summer on North Carolina election as welfars and happiness fashall every for the Liberal Republicans and not lead of the state of

can be given you by a friendly government.

Very respectfully.

ROBT. J. ALCORN,

THE TIDE ROLLS ON. Chairman Liberal Republican State Executive Committee

THE COTTON WORM.

THE YAZOO REGION.

From the Yazoo Democrat. The genuine cotton worm is under bredly

EAST MISSISSIPPI.

From the Paulding Messenger. The growth and development of cutton is slow, and the yield will probably fall far short of what was hoped for a few weeks.

Mr. T. Pollin, chairman of the Grantite. ago. The worm is still working slowly,

---The Tools Radical Tyranny work

with. From the Oxford Falcon. INCEST .- We learn that a warrant was issued on the 15th of July, by R. G. She-horn, Justice of the Peace, in Tishomingo county, for the arrest of a man and his sis ter on the above charge, and that they have both fled the country. These parties are witnesses before the Pederal Court against a number of respectable citizens of Tishoningo county, charged with being Kuklux tial reconciliation. It is no compliment to Thus it is the most deprayed and brutish creatures that ever accursed God's earth are selected by the Federal officials to swear away the liberties and lives of our helpless than seven years since the laying down of Confederate arms "the bloody chasm" is of the United States Court at this place, it not filled up, and that our federal relations | will be remembered that one of Pierce's Kuklux witnesses, from the same county, and a young unmarried woman, gave birth to a child the evening after going before ted with the business of conducting a civil the grand jury, and three other notoriously mantled in gloom at the appearance of government, the exigencies of our situation to have been brought down, but as their characters became pretty well known here

From the Benton County Argus. Hon. D. B. Wright.

As will be seen, by the proceedings of the Central Executive Committee, in another olumn, our distinguished fellow-citizen Hon. Daniel B. Wright, is the Presidential been sworn to indict those the most civilly disposed, and fartherest above suspicion, it acceptance of the Reconstruction measures the first Congressional district. He will "voice of the white and black go up for could not possibly have done its work more as the proper course to hasten the return of Proven on the first district is the banner as the first district is the banner perfectly, in most cases, than it has done in a cordial and genuine peace to the country. district of the South. Col. Wright will do

> From the Goodman Star. The following colloquy occurred at Jackson, Wednesday, the day of the meeting of Portsmouth Times says: "If Greeley gains the Liberal and Democratic Executive from the Republican ranks in other parts of Committees, between Dr. R. H. Montgomsolution appears in the fact, that under the been an earnest, consistent member-I am ery, of Durant, and Attorney General very peculiar circumstances of the time a polest to-day

Judge Morris-"Well Doctor, in this fusion business in which you Liberal Republicans and Democrats are at present engaged, is it expected that one party is to furnish the brains and character as an offset victorious armies of the United States, and to the other's money to make the movement Dr. Montgomery-"I don't know Judge whether that be so or not, and better that than to be like your party, which has neithpockets of honest men.

his Travels.

He Preaches a Radical Sermon in St. Louis and is taken in by a brother Rad.

From the St. Louis Times. "After a formal conference on the subject, a confidential agent and secret service comlings of hostility among the Southern peo-States—men of known character and integinto his sermon against Greeley, that vile and abominable enslavor of the colored race, with an equally glowing eulogium o ionist. Merely as a compliment, of course, mander had ceased to rule in our midst, it and in no wish as a part of a bargain, the does seem that a discreet policy, formed out secret emmissary aforesaid slipped into the man nature, looking to pacification, would all went well. The note was pocketed; the Grant, and the vessel of grace retired to his | and are organizing a club. country. The morn, alas! brought other sensations. Having accomplished the purpose of his mission, Revels addressed him self to return to his native Mississippi. He sought his pocket book, which had contained his return half-fare ticket, with $10 of his own money, and the $50 previously con-tributed by his white fellow-sympathizers. The search proved unavailing, ticket, mo-ney and all had disappeared, and he had to get back home by subscription, ten dollars and a red hot sermon worse than when he

precedented Progress.

to realize the situation, but you had better ostracism of those inconsiderate Southern From the Chicago Tribune (Greeley) July 9 not close your eyes on the facts. The juries are packed with the most ignorant, vicious and prejudiced of the party who are ready and prejudiced of the party who are ready are now whose years walk in life mark.

The revolution is not confined to any section or State, or parts of States; it is section or State, or parts of States; it is section or State, or parts of States; it is section or State, or parts of States; it is general. It is strong among the people of vermont; is decisive in all closely balanced large space occupied for services, the asso-States; is sweeping in all the opposition ciation has this year built a large taberna-States, and promises, before November, to cle for use in case of stormy weather. There be overwhelming in all the States. There are thirty-five ministers assisting in the seris no local reason why Greeley should be vice. more popular in Illinois than in Massachu- have been running special trains every hour setts; yet the revolution in this State is during the day from this city, one train astounding even to his friends. So gener- from Washington, Philadelphia, and one al and sweeping is it that there is not at from Mannington, West Virginia, all of this time a Congressional district in this which were heavily loaded. State in which the friends of Mr. Greeley do not have the strongest hopes of electing 1868 gave Grant majorities by the thousident he found this State in disorder. Here and there were organizations known as Ku of this State being given for Greeley, there the capacity of Elector on the Greeley tick-Klux. A great evil was this Ku Klux or- is no doubt. The Greeley State ticket and et, in pursuance of the wishes of the State Executive Committee. His ability as a a Legislature of Greeley supporters are regarded as certainties.

Throughout the Union enough is known lawlessness aggravated it. The physician to render it certain that the following States not only made the patient worse, but extended the infection into an epidemic. After provoking certain sections of the State by illegal arrests and most insulting espionage to a point but little short of desperation, they press the disturbances which their conduct created into service as evidence of king 171 electoral votes. In addition to lismissals from court without conviction | York by 50,000, and Pennsylvania by 30,000, and New Jersey by 15,000. These States days, one-half of which time was spent in skull, from the effects of which the negro Rev. Dr. Bell in reference to the re-opening

The developments of the last few months indicate that the higers spoken of by H. G. has already began, that the carpat-baggers have commenced

THE TIDE ROLLS ON.

have repudiated Grant, and are now members of the Greeley Republican State Com-

The Auroro Volksfreund, the only German paper in the fourth Illinois Congressional district, comes out for Greeley and Charles F. Wadsworth, of Gennessee, son of the late Gen. Wadsworth, has gone into

Mr. T. Rollin, chairman of the Grantite

E. Billingfelt, for the last eight years the Pa., refuses to support Hartranft for Gov-ernor, and has been ruled off the course for

Robert Krum, a Republican member of publican party in Schoharie county, has re-

Samuel J. Randall reports the enthusiasm a letter, which will soon be published, in favor of Mr. Greeley for President. Judges

Willard and Graham, Republicans of South

Carolina, are also reported to be for Greeley.

N. Y., repudiate Grant and will vote for

Hon. M. M. Ester, late Secretary of the Republican State Committee addressed a Greeley and Brown. This is one-quarter of Greeley and Brown in November.

large Greeley meeting this evening.

hester, supports Greeley and Brown.

5,000 to 10,000 majority.'

clared for Greeley.

declared for Greeley.

I'wo of these have no vote.

cention to support Greeley.

advocates the election of Greeley.

has taken the field for Greeley-has taken the stump for Greeley.

it will be largely increased.'

ding faith in their election.

ons, is said to be for Greeley and Brown.

Religious Intelligence.

Immense Camp Meeting.

WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 18.-The annual amp meeting of the State is now being held tious services is under control of the Rev.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad

Gen. E. C. Walthall.

This gallant soldier and honored citizen ill canvass his Congressional District in Serious Affair.

the Egypt plantation, three miles north of Raleigh, between Mr. Luther McCollum, a youth of lifteen years, and a negre employ ed on his mother's place. The negro advanced on McCollum with a hand spike rais-

From the Columbus Press (Radical.)

Boston for Greeley.

There is no longer reasonable doubt that Boston will give a large majority for Gree-ley, and it will probably elect two Liberal

From the Springfield (Mass.) Republics

From the Memphis Appeal.

is not the least guile.

From the Goodman Star.

at Moundsville. The direction of the reli-

State Executive committee in New Hamp-

Brown and the entire State Ticket.

B. Jones and Stephen Gordo

To fold their tents like Arabs, And silently steal away. $2 00 PER YEAR

The corners of the streets that used to be dorned by the presence of one Reed hafor the last few weeks known him no longer. Reed was one of Ames' importations and la a professional legislative clerk and lobby ist. Upon inquiry of the cause of his sudden and timely departure, we learned that a promi-Three members of the Grant New Hamp-shire Republican State Central Committee gave him $1,000 in State warrants to dispose of, which Reed did, and then disposed or

HEGIRA OF THE CARPET-BAGGERS. -

mittee. Their names are S. M. Morse, Thos. Vincent, the carpet-bag Assistant Forgeant-at-Arms of the late House of Representatives, was arrested immediately after the Legislature adjourned, for forgery, or ssuing without authority of law Leffore county warrants. His carpet-bag friends, knowing how it was themselves," made a straw bail-hond for him and he departed hence. It is needless to add that when his case was called in that county he was not shire, has united his political fortunes with there to answer to the charge the friends of Greeley and good government. Swann, the Newton count Swann, the Newton county villain, who was indicted for forgery, and who was per-Republican State Senator from Lancaster. mitted to give a bond of only $500, with such men as Cunningham and Shaughnesses as sureties, and who it he had his descriwould be in the penitentiary for the Newton county election frauds, has suddenly the New York State Constitutional Con-vention in 1867, and the leader of the Redisappeared since the discovery of the forged warrant business.

diated Grant and taken the stump for Chapman, late clerk in the Auditor's office, who cut a number of fantastic tricks on our streets last winter while in drunken for Greeley in Northwestern Pennsylvania prees, has now cut dirt under suspicion.

unprecedented. So far as the West is con-cerned. Cameronian rings and Hartranft speculators will be buried out of sight. DeNyse, nondescript carpet-bagger, the one that a negro told in the beat convention, Of the Iowa Grant committee, twelve in reported in THE CLARION some time since, number, two have gone over to Greeley, and a third is chained. They are R. W. Humphrey, of Floyd county; J. L. Clark, of Decatur, and (it is said) B. F. Gue, of Web-leans a few nights since. The New Orleans papers of yesterday report that he has been We have information that Robert C. De Large, one of the colored Republican conarrested for obtaining money under fidee gressmen from South Carolina, has written

Cunningham is in durance vile with a fair prospect of yet doing the State some service, not in the way of issuing warrants from the second Auditor's office, but in the peniten-

Over 2000 Republican in Steuben county, How many more have left forever throughout the State we cannot say, but miss upon Grant's vote in that county in 1868, and se-cures a majority of 1,500 in old Steuben for our streets many whose faces were well known. It is to be hoped they have retired "to the shades of private life," the "deeper "and darker the shades the better."

The Greeley revolt is destined to carry LUNATIC ASYLUM EXTENSION. -- By all before it in New Hampshire. The invitation of Mr. Willis, State Architect, we were present yesterday at the Asylum when the contractors, Messrs. Keary & Stanthe State as he will in this city and county, he will carry New Hampshire by from ton, formally turned over the new wings to the Joint Standing Committee of the Leg-Ex-Mayor Briggs (Republican.) of Roislature. The two wings are each 148 feet long, 39 feet wide, and three stories high, The Saratoga Democrat claims 1,000 Re- and have been erected at an expense of two publican supporters of Greeley in that hundred and four thousand dollars in currency, besides tifteen thousand do Three members of the Grant Cortland furniture. They afford accommodation for County Republican Committee have de-Seven of the delegates to the last Grant bly accommodate 325 patients. There are State Convention at Elmira have already Spotted Tail, Colonel Mosby, and the ondon Times have declared for Grant. cations now on file, we should not be surprised if the rooms were all in use by the The Postmaster of West Camden, Oneida ounty, Thomas W. McKee, declares his in-The Lunatic Asylum is certainly an im posing public edifice, and seems to be well George A. Deming, the present Republi-can County Treasurer of Monroe county,

E. W. Packard, President of the Grant cost of the building is about four bundred dub in Munda, Livingston county, in 1868, thousand dollars. In the new wings alone B. T. Kneeland, Republican Supervisor of the town of Portage, Livingston county, A letter from Columbus, Ohio, says: neer at the Asylum, and certainly reflects Assurances are given that in every township in the county, the accessions to Gree-ley now equal 10 per cent. of the Republigreat credit upon that gentleman. The can party vote. By the day of the election which gives satisfaction. We found six ca-A. J. Swift, a prominent lawyer, and Chairman of the Republican County Committee of Allegany, and Charles Guilford, a Republican Supervisor of the town of tached, were in operation. A new bake-Cuba, have declared for Greeley and Brown two large ovens, one baker furnishes bread Moses H. Grinnell is strongly in favor of Greeley and Brown. He expresses an abi-Eighty Republicans in the town of Wethersfield, Wyoming county, have signed a call for a Greeley and Brown meeting. the Pittsburg coal, and which was pur-The entire population of Lisle, Broome county, New York, with one or two excep-nterest to the public, like a faithful chiel, we print it. To Dr. W. M. Compton, Superintendent, and Dr. Jas. McWillie, Assistent, we tender our acknowledgments for courtesies on the occasion.

AMERICAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPA-NY .- The Annual Statement of this Compa-State, explains elsewhere. This Company wiarity, and ranks among the Jeading com-Winter has been appointed Local Agent and will always be ready to receive appli cations and Issue policies to such as want

JACKSON, Miss., August 20, 1872. Messrs. Handy & Andrews, Managers American Life Insurance Company, Cun ton, Miss, speaker and his eloquence as an electric orator are too well known to need any com-GENTLEMEN :- I desire to return ndation at our hands. He will perform hanks for the payment of the Policy of his duty in the present canvass as becomes a good citizen and a patriot in whom there husband, James K. Lea. The policy was only issued a few months ago, and although nsured in other offices, the "American" has done me a personal kindness by paying the policy forty days before it was due ssured you have my warmest wishes for A difficulty occurred on Friday last on your success and happiness.

Yours, very respectfully

UNION FEMALE COLLEGE,-We call him on the head with an axe, fracturing his attention to the special announcement of died on Saturday night. On Sunday an in- of this institution on the 11th proximo. quest was held over the remains of the negro, and a verdict was rendered that he came to his death at the hands of Mr. Mcother States. Already comes the cheering Collum, who acted entirely in self-defense. ment of the College will be well equipped.

Everybody complains of high taxes. The

A letter received at the Liberal headquarters from Eufaula, Ala., says. "We have a colored Greeley club organized here, and last night a crowd of from fifty to one hundred negroes went to the house of one of the officers of the colored club and abused him outrageously, insulting him and his family, and made so many threats against him that he was forced to appeal to the police for protection, and all because he had announced himself for Greeley. Nevertheless, there are white votes enough for Greeles to carry Alabama."

Radical "Big Gums."

From the Columbus Press (Radical.) merchant, the manufacturer, the mechanic, to 1865, during the entire period of the war, Yes, and this man Cuaningham was one of the "big guns" in the late Congressional Convention at Jackson, which was a dis-Convention at Jackson, which was a disgrace to the Republican party, if we are to believe one-half of the evidence from our own sources. This man was a delegate, it is said, "fixed up" oredentials, and the like but he is not a whit worse than a number of such "birds of a feather" as we had in our Congressional Convention in this Distance of the war they have been called, upon to pay two thousand three hundred and forty-there millions of dollars. Thus the stream is increasing with fearful velocity.—Philadelpia Age.

We were much gratified while at Jackson some days ago, at a visit, we paid to the stove and tin ware depot of our old and excellent war they have been called, upon to pay two thousand three hundred and forty-there millions of dollars. Thus the stream is increasing with fearful velocity.—Philadelpia Age.

We were much gratified while at Jackson some days ago, at a visit, we paid to the stove and tin ware depot of our old and excellent and the like our control of the contr

We were much gratified while at Jackson some days ago, at a visit we paid to the stove and tin ware depot of our old and excellent friend Mr. W. Wighart, formerly a citizen of Raymond. We found our old friend occupying one of the best busibusiness afrect, and with a large and most complete stock of everything within the range of his line of business.—Hinds County